• PITCHING • HITTING • FIELDING • RUNNING • MANAGING

Easy to play, real thrilling, exciting baseball with STRAT-O-MATIC. 400 big league players perform according to their actual abilities and your managerial decisions.

You, the manager, not only decide lineups, insert pinch-hitters, pinch-runners, and relief pitchers, play your infield "in or deep," and make defensive changes at any time, but also call for the sacrifice, steal, hit-and-run, and squeeze-play. All strategy moves are possible with STRAT-O-MATIC.

You have real control over all 400 major league players — who actually hit, pitch, field, and run according to their baseball abilities.

Each player has truly individual qualities. He slumps and goes into hot streaks, performs heroics and commits errors. With STRAT-O-MATIC all qualities of a ballplayer are realistic.

If you like baseball, you'll love to play STRAT-O-MATIC

FANS RAVE

Here are just a few of the hundreds of letters we receive every week, from baseball fans aged 8 to 80, from coast to coast!

STRAT-O-MATIC BASEBALL is the best baseball game I ever have had. Kids swamp over the back porch to play this game! Boy, it is a lot of fun! Thank you for making such a wonderful game. —P. C., Attleboro, Mass.

Just like real baseball. It is fun to play. —G. V., Cincinnati, O.

As close to realism as one can get and therefore far more superior to other competing baseball games. —F. T., Manila, P.I.

Although it's fantastically realistic, it's also very simple to play. —A. F., Los Angeles, Calif.

I'm one hundred percent satisfied with it. The game provides hours of fun for me and my friends. It's very realistic, and true to life. —C. H., Lanett, Ala.

The best baseball game. It is realistic and yet not too difficult to play. —P. M., Port Huron, Mich.

Thank you for creating such an exciting yet realistic game and putting a shine to what might have been a boring summer. —N. S., Los Angeles, Calif.

Boys are waiting in line to play the game! —A. H., Chicago, Ill.

It has given me more pleasure than any other game. —S. E., Rossville, Ind.

The most exciting and fun game ever. —L.S., Boston, Mass.

It is so stupendous, words can't explain. —J. R., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Best on the market. —J. E., Miami, Fla.

Has given me more enjoyment than I have ever had from any one thing in my entire life. It's worth its weight in gold. As I love baseball, this game gives me something enjoyable to do during the off seasons as well as during the season. —S. C., Temple City, Calif.

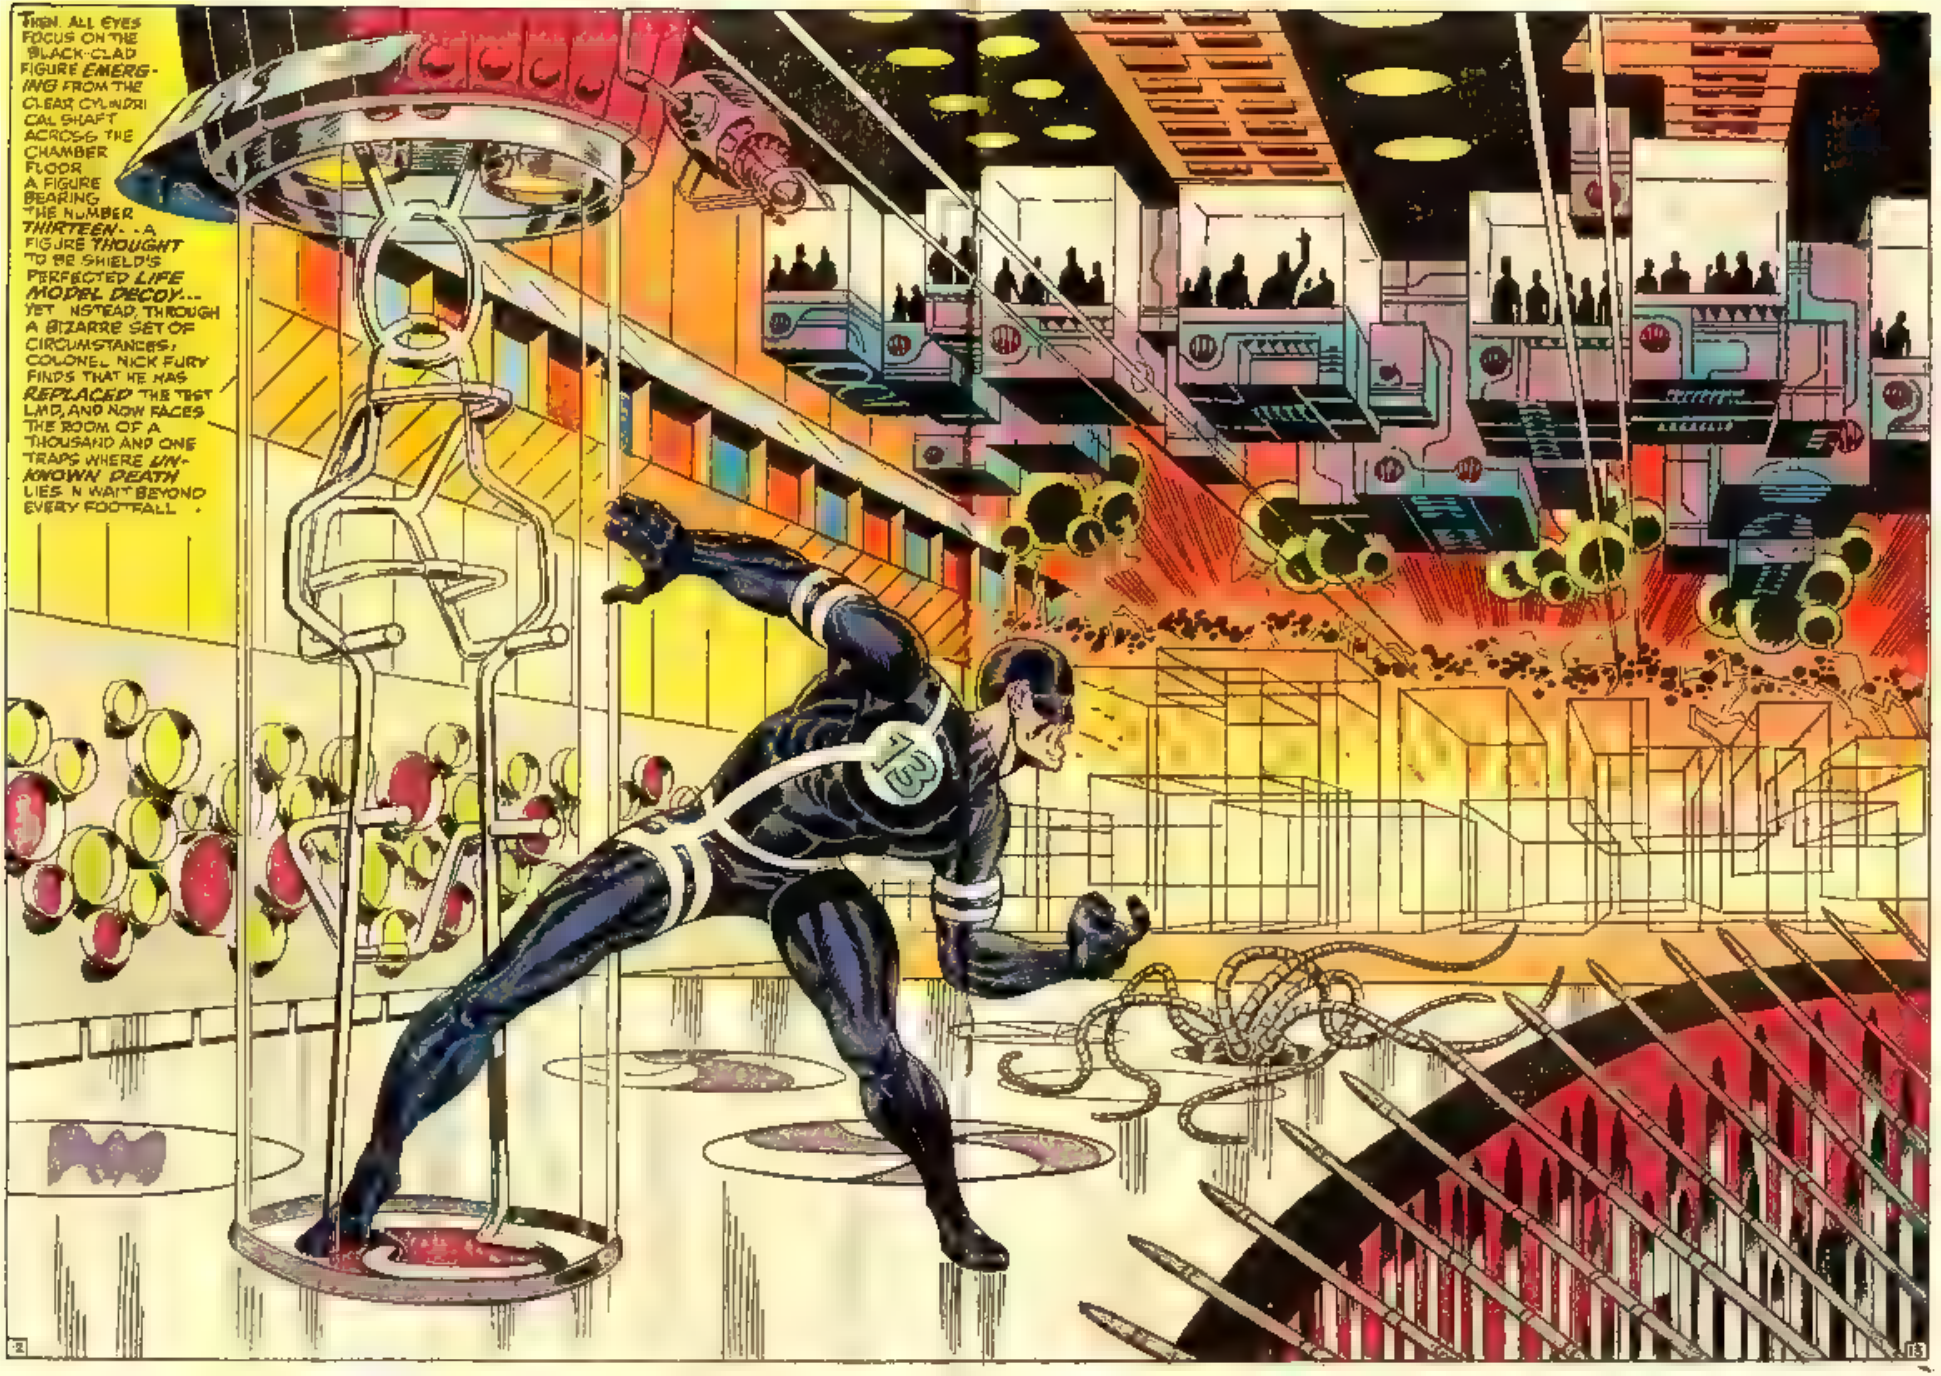
AN UNLUCKY NUMBER FOR YOU, NICK FURY! YES, THE DRUG'S WORN OFF JUST IN TIME...
HE'S COMING OUT... NOW!



THEN, ALL EYES FOCUS ON THE BLACK-CLAD FIGURE EMERGING FROM THE CLEAR CYLINDRICAL SHAFT ACROSS THE CHAMBER FLOOR A FIGURE BEARING THE NUMBER THIRTEEN--A FIGURE THOUGHT TO BE SHIELD'S PERFECTED LIFE MODEL DECOY... YET INSTEAD, THROUGH A BIZARRE SET OF CIRCUMSTANCES, COLONEL NICK FURY FINDS THAT HE HAS REPLACED THE TEST LAD, AND NOW FACES THE DOOM OF A THOUSAND AND ONE TRAPS WHERE UNKNOWN DEATH LIES IN WAIT BEYOND EVERY FOOTFALL

STAN'S SOAPBOX

This month we're gonna yak about something that has nothing to do with our mags! Over the years we've received a zillion letters asking for the Bullpen's opinion about such diverse subjects as Viet Nam, civil rights, the war on poverty, and the upcoming election. We're fantasmagorically flattered that our opinion would matter to you, but here's the hang-up: there ISN'T any unanimous Bullpen opinion about anything, except possibly mother love and apple pie! Take the election, for example. Some of us are staunch Democrats, and others dyed-in-the-wool Republicans. As for Yours Truly and a few others, we prefer to judge the person, rather than the party line. That's why we seek to avoid editorializing about controversial issues — not because we haven't our opinions, but rather because we share the same diversity of opinion as Americans everywhere. But, we'd like to go on record about one vital issue — we believe that Man has a divine destiny, and an awesome responsibility — the responsibility of treating all who share this wondrous world of ours with tolerance and respect — judging each fellow human on his own merit, regardless of race, creed, or color. That we agree on — and we'll never rest until it becomes a fact, rather than just a cherished dream!

Excelsior,
Smiley.

DON'T YIELD, WRITE S.H.I.E.L.D.

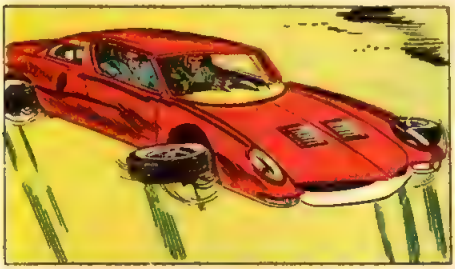
c/o MARVEL COMICS GROUP, 625 MADISON AVE., N.Y., N.Y. 10022

Dear Stan and Co.,

After living with and loving comic books for twenty of my 28 years, two years ago I finally got my fill of them — satiated. Oh, it was great to see the rebirth of adventure heroes, but after a while they began to appear to be much the same — if you've read one, you've read 'em all. Fortunately, I was recently reintroduced to your publications, notably SHIELD. I won't lay any more of the dripping praise on you that so many of your other readers take care of so well. Rather, I'd simply like to commend your editorial handling of page 5, SHIELD #2. In the '30 plus year history of the graphic story, few have approached such a subject with the effect Steranko achieved. The point was well made in a genuinely quiet, tasteful manner. Further, the inclusion of a Negro villain obsessed with delusions of grandeur ("No man has the right to set himself up as a god". . . a man must do the things he thinks best.") was a uniquely masterful (or should I say MARVELous) touch. Centurius must return! T'was also grand to see Jimmy Woo again; can we now also look forward to a revival of the most powerful villain of all time, the Yellow Claw? So long as you continue to attempt to achieve something at least a little out of the ordinary there'll be readers around who appreciate it, and I'll be one of 'em.

Ronn Foss, 45-A Laskie
San Francisco, California 94103

Stan and Jim were pleased as punch with your praise! Glad to have you back with us! Incidentally, Ronn is one of fandom's finest artists . . . what can we say but we're gratified, pal!



Dear Stan and Jim:

I am writing about AGENT OF SHIELD #2. (Oh, before I start, tell those people who complain about types of letters to go and cry with Brother Forbush!) Firstly, the cover was beautiful, except, why was Centurius' armour grey and orange, while inside it was grey, yellow, and red. Secondly, the full color page with "Kong" on it was beautiful. Make more like it, and could I have a glossy, larger reprint? Thirdly, Fury is becoming far too muscular. He doesn't look good in that costume either. Finally, I tell you why Marvel has reached the top (50,000,000 books a year). You don't believe in racial strife or feel embarrassed to use a Negro character. This is, I think, the most important of many reasons. So long for now. Don't Yield, Back Forbush?

Paul Butler, 32 Bromore Crescent
Hamilton, Ontario, Canada

Centurius will be the start of many new Negro characters (heroes, bad guys and supporting players)! In fact, now that we broke the color barrier, you'll probably see other companies getting in line, too! As for the armor being a different color, we think every villain has the right to a change of costume! Oh yeah, we'll tell Fury about the costume, Paul!

Dear Editor,

Well, here it comes, I'm gonna rave about SHIELD #2! Jim Steranko, terrific! Man, does that guy know how to illustrate. The cover was dynamite. One of the best drawn covers of the year. And the art on the inside, wow! Especially on pages 12-13. I mean that really was beautiful. When I opened up the centerfold I just couldn't believe what I saw. I just sat there looking at it, stunned. The whole network, so precisely drawn, just flipped my lid. Now that I finished raving about the art let me tell you what I think of the story. (Uh-oh, now you're gonna get it.) Well, basically it was pretty good, except for one little thing. Could you please tell me how in Sam Hill (no reference to Sgt. Fury) does Colonel Fury constantly figure out how to defeat an enemy much superior than him? I mean the law of averages has got to catch up to you sooner or later, right? For example, even the Mets win once in a while. The fantastic odds against which you put him up are really very unrealistic. So, either he loses some or calm down the opponents.

Murray Selzer, 2732 Matthews Ave.
Bronx, New York 10467

We can't agree with you, Murray! Fury didn't defeat Centurius, nor did he vanquish Scorpio in ish #11 Read 'em again and see if the endings aren't a little more realistic than most! OK? And, 'til we hear from all of you again . . . Peace, Baby!

F.F.F. (FEARLESS FRONT FACER)—AN HONORARY TITLE BESTOWED FOR DEVOTION TO MARVEL ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY.

Dear Editor,

I have always regarded Agent of Shield as rather a minor strip, good for enjoyment now and again, but rarely containing any significant material. Recently, however, you have proven me wrong time and time again, first with the Yellow Claw revelation a la Doctor Doom, and now the cataclysmic craftsmanship portrayed in issue two, "So Shall Ye Reap Death!" With this latest effort, he has definitely come to a peak in his comics career, for he has outdone himself in all conceivable respects, plot, script, and artwork. "So Shall Ye Reap Death" was easily one of the most compelling dramas I have ever seen. The basic premise, scientist punishing the helpless earth for its sins, has been utilized time and time again, so that it has become almost a cliche in itself, but Mr. Steranko has managed to breathe life into the time-honored plot and emerge with a winner. In this story, Steranko has shown himself to be a master at weaving subplots together to augment the main story (this time, the film company on location, and the so-called Evolutionizer device). The death devised by the Mad Scientist of the day, bathing the earth in a rain of fire for forty day and forty nights, closely approximates an old Biblical prophesy which states that earth will be doomed three times: First by water, then by fire, then by ice. The first has, allegedly, taken place, with the flooding of the world for forty days and Noah's Ark and all, but this doom described by Centurius seems to be a fulfillment of the second prophesy, that the world would die in fire. Any comment on this? Jim Steranko's pencils and Frank Giacoia's inks once again blend together to create an eminently viewable example of the cartoonists' trade. Mr. Steranko has a strange ability to convey action without words and emotion without the use of word balloons. This is indeed a talent to be proud of, and I look forward to seeing it more and more in the future. All in all, sincere thanks for some of the most powerful reading I've yet seen.

Jeff Pierce, 630 Gerona Road
Stanford, California 94305

Jeff, your laudatory letter again proves that SHIELD readers are among the most literate in the comic world! The profound perceptions you've penned reflect precisely the reactions we had hoped for! Take our word for it, as long as fans like you feel this way, we'll do the best job we can to bring depth and realism to Shield!

Dear Stan and Jim:

When I finished reading "So Shall Ye Reap Death" in the second fantastic issue of NICK FURY, AGENT OF SHIELD, I was stunned. Sure, I am used to reading great stories from the House of Ideas, but this one was something special! As usual, Jaunty Jim's artwork was out of this world. His style is somewhat similar to that of Will Eisner, who was very popular in the Golden Age of Comics. The love scene on page 7 is probably one of the finest scenes Marvel has ever depicted. As for the story itself, it was absolutely great! I like Centurius for the very same reasons I like the Silver Surfer. He was fed up with society and wanted an Earth without ". . . mass murder, intimidation, fear." The philosophy expressed is unique and I agree with it wholeheartedly. This yarn is a perfect example of Marvelism (the name I have given to the Marvel Philosophy). All in all issue,#2 of SHIELD was truly wonderful. It proved beyond a shadow of any doubt that this is truly the Marvel Age of Literature. Until next time, may Irving Forbush never face backwards! 'Nuff said!

Achille Di Bacco, 1701 Terrace Dr. West
Lake Clarke Terrace, Lake Worth, Florida 33460

And we agree with you wholeheartedly! You see, if just one Shield reader sees the world more clearly, then, we'll have fulfilled our objective!

Dear Stan and Jim,

I feel you are overlooking a few things about Marvel in your enthusiasm over "The Second Golden Age of Marvel." I have two major reasons for disliking two of your mags. SHIELD is one of your best mags except for a few drawbacks in coloring which are rapidly decreasing. Its reason for being second-rate is explained by the title "Nick Fury, Agent of S.H.I.E.L.D." SHIELD is an organization, not one man. In the beginning you believed this, but later on after featuring mainly Nick Fury in one series you carried on. This takes away from the magazine considerably. A question: Is not SHIELD a world organization? If it is, why is it so American?

Don Plosker, 1917 Cowan Cres.
Regina, Sask., Canada

Check it again, Don! NICK FURY AGENT OF SHIELD is not an organization . . . Fury is Fury! And it is his adventures we attempt to portray, even glimpses of his personal life as well as the Shield bit! But, if readers would prefer it differently . . . write an' let us know! One final thing, Shield is an American based group dedicated to world peace . . . dig?

Dear Stan and Jim,

The really remarkable thing about Jim Steranko, when you think about it, is that he makes the unbelievable believably real, as if the unreal were an everyday occurrence. "So Shall Ye Reap . . . Death" illustrates the point quite graphically that Steranko is just that sort of writer/illustrator. If Steranko tells us that top espionage organizations subject their trainees and new members to death dealing rites over which no one would have any control, okay, they do. If Steranko says that an island exists of indescribable scientific marvels and that no one in the world knows that it exists, all right, that just must be the way that it is. If he wants us to believe that one man can create a city complete with monorails and elevated buildings, never mind what else existed in the place, then somehow, in the realm of things, it just must be, because he breathes life into all of it. Someone mentioned in the letters page that Steranko turned what once was a mediocre realistic strip into one of the realm of imagination; and yet,when Steranko took the reins of SHIELD I had just the opposite opinion: that it was more realistic than ever before, that the people in this organization were no more than sharp examples of all different types of personalities and viewpoints. There were so many great examples of Steranko's artistic genius in this issue that they more than covered the few weak links in the plot, and I'll even forgive that he didn't make it a two part story. The splash panel was superb. Keep the hidden titles or use them in different variations. And thanks cannot be given enough for that splendid, superbly done interlude between Nick Fury and Val. More than mere images were conveyed from that wordless scene than any amount of words could have said. The entire scene, the mood, the people, and the situation were all subtly woven into the reader's knowledge. And Steranko has proved that he is a master of resolving the situations which he throws his characters into. Continue to weave ordinary people, if Brad Carter and Tiff are ordinary, into the scheme of things, they add so much more to the story. For some it just might be the end, but for SHIELD, Steranko has proved that this is the beginning.

Donald McGregor, 43 Wildwood Ave.
Providence, Rhode Island 02907

Better believe it, Don baby . . . this is only the beginning! Starting with the premier ish of Shield, Steranko began his new style of writing! . . . We predict it will revolutionize the whole comic industry and if that isn't a beginning . . . what is?

ANALOG COMPUTER
Electronic Computer multiplies, divides, calculates powers, roots. Set up the problem on the scales of two potentiometers and find the answer on the scale of the galvanometer as indicated by a sensitive meter. Instruction Manual explains the computer theory and practical use. Over 150 sample problems and answers demonstrate use with fractions, trigonometry, logarithms, physics formulas, ballistics, etc.

MICROCRAFT LAB
Microprojector shows microscopic subjects enlarged to brilliant detail on wall or screen. Has sturdy Steel Cabinet, large Condensing Lenses for extra brightness, and a GE Projection Lamp. Accessories include Camera Rotatable Eye-piece for wide field viewing, Substage Light and Polarizing Filters. Magnifies up to 200X. Includes Slides, Cover Glasses and Microscopy Manual.

SURVEYOR'S TRANSIT
A practical Transit. 6X erect image telescope with Range Finder Reticle for measuring remote distances and heights. Vernier reading for both horizontal and vertical scales. Leveling Head with Thumb Screw Adjustment and Spirit Level. Clamps under head hold wooden legs of tripod. (Legs not included.) Instructions cover elementary surveying, range-finding.

LIGHT AND OPTICS LAB
Exciting optical projects for the study of light. Equipment includes: five Precision Lenses, Prism, Polarizing Filters, Diffraction Grating, Mirror, Telescoping Tubing, Lens Mounts, Tube Holders and Brackets.

SOME QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Q. How is it possible? It seems incredible to be able to get all the equipment shown above in just nine kits — at only $4.75 per kit!

A. The direct-to-you "no middleman" club plan is just part of the answer. The other key is ABSClub's especially designed multi-use equipment. For example: the Microprojector quickly and easily converts into the Spectroscope, Photo Enlarger and Cloud Chamber Illuminator. Similarly, the Transit doubles as a Telescope Mount. Such multi-purpose design . . . plus club plan economy . . . makes possible this all-science program at a price everyone can afford.

Q. May members choose the order in which they receive their kits?

A. Yes. With the first kit members receive a list of the equipment and projects contained in each of the remaining eight kits. With this information they are able to choose the kit sequence that best suits their particular interest.

Q. Can members get their kits all at once instead of one-a-month?

A. Yes. At any time members can have the balance of their kits sent in one shipment. We recommend that you start on the kit-a-month plan because the monthly spacing will give you time to get the full measure of knowledge and enjoyment that each kit has to offer.
